KEYNOTE SPEAKER: STEPHANIE OLSON

Stephanie Olson is a survivor of domestic/sexual violence, has since got her BA & MA degrees and heads up The Set Me Free Project, an organization helping young adults avoid sex trafficking. She is an author and well-travelled speaker.

GUEST SPEAKERS

These women have a passion for helping those in need— “the least of these” —find the help they need and a purpose for living. Both work in the Social Work field in our area.

MIKAYLA DAVY— Mikayla and husband Zach live in Council Bluffs, where she works as a Intensive Behavioral Health Navigator with the Peer Center, a division of Heartland Family Service. She works to provide engagement, encouragement, and input into helping others manage their lives.

KAMI BEDUNNA— Kami lives and works in Kansas City, as the New Life Center Building Manager of the City Union Mission. She teaches residents Godly stewardship through maintaining the things God has given through His goodness and grace.

A light continental breakfast and coffee will be provided as part of the conference. Find us on the web at www.hopenetministries.org or look us up on Facebook!
